The Pittsburgh Gazette.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1866.

A DISPOSITION has been evinced on the part of many of the old admirers of Slavery to attribute the comparative failure of crops in the Southern States almost exclusively to the inertness of the blacks since coercion has been withdrawn. Gen. Jenkins, of Georgia, puts a different face on the matter. He attributes the failure in part to the indisposition to steady labor of the freedmen, but chiefly from unpropitious seasons. But even with these abatements, he adds, what will be an agreeable surprise everywhere, that the pecuniary results of the year are gratifying. Of cotton, he says, the "price of the article will be more than three-fold that of the average of former years, whilst the production in weight will be fully one-third of that realized in those years."

THERE are reports that the Fenians, preparatory to the next onset upon Canada, mean to cut the Atlantic Cable. Any nation at war with another, would do the same thing, provided their interests required the barbarism. But it remains to be shown that excursions by certain classes of our own citizens, against the territory of an adjoining nation, with which we are at peace, are legitimate acts of warfare.

MRS. MCCLURE, a farmer's wife, living near Quincy, Illinois, apparently died on Sunday, a week ago, and next day was buried in the family vault, near the house. On Wednesday, groans were heard in the vault by some children; the coffin was opened, and the woman found alive. She had injured herself in attempting to force open the coffin, but is recovering.

THE young Republicans of Washington are concerting measures to give Congress a formal and cordial welcome upon its reassembling. Civic and military delegations are expected to participate from different cities. This is the demonstration which the supporters of "My Policy" construe into an assault upon the President.

THE Cleveland papers are jubilant over the completion of the new Union Passenger Depot in that city, which they claim to be the largest in the world. It was formally opened on Saturday, with a banquet and speeches. The building is 608 feet long by 180 broad, and cost half a million of dollars.

COLORADO has taken the start of all the territories in establishing a good common school system. A seminary for higher education has also been commenced, under favorable auspices, at Central City. Arizona, Montana, Idaho and New Mexico have made no efforts worth mentioning in this direction.

IN Cincinnati, Judge Warren has decided that "a conviction by a court martial would be necessary to disfranchise a deserter" under the act of Congress. This has the merit of adhering to the "line of safe precedents."

BEFORE the New York election Mr. Seward's friends said he would regard the defeat of Mr. Hoffman as such a demand for his own return to private life as he would feel bound to obey. Why don't he hurry up his resignation?

THE time was when Thurlow Weed claimed to be the Warwick of American politics. His power is broken. The witchery of his incantations is dissolved. He only excites jeers by lingering longer on the stage.

THE Buffalo Commercial, which, as its name imports, was sold to the President, and supported his Policy till after the late elections, concedes that the people have decided in favor of Congress.

CONGRESS will meet in regular session on Monday, the third day of December—three weeks from yesterday. Already some of the members have arrived at Washington.

AN account of an apparatus for consuming all the smoke and gases evolved from coal, with a computation of the saving made thereby, is given in another column, and is worth considering.

THE October elections sent the mercury in the rebel thermometers all over the South down several degrees. The November elections must send it down to zero.

THERE is a possibility that Lippencott, Republican, has been elected to Congress from the Ninth district of Illinois, making a gain of one member.

IT is now stated that General Sherman has gone to Mexico to see the French well off. The result will doubtless put a different face on the matter.

THE election of Van Horn, Radical, over Waddell, Democratic, in the Sixth Congressional district of Missouri, appears to be certain.

GOV. FLETCHER, Charles D. Drake, and Henry T. Blow are competitors for the United States Senatorship in Missouri.

THE Republican majority in Illinois runs up to 58,000.

The Senatorship.

MESSRS. EDITORS GAZETTE:—Is it not important that an expression should be had, on the part of the people of Western Pennsylvania, as to their choice in the determination of the question of the successorship to Mr. Cowan, in view of his approaching retirement from the Senate? Citizens are apt to be remiss in matters of this sort. They are too much disposed to refer the adjustment of political questions to such cliques or combinations (self-constituted generally) as may choose to assume the responsibility. Experience ought to have taught us a better lesson. For the Senatorial position of all others, men ought to be selected of assured faith as well as ability. Such a combination is seldom found in the politician (taken in its commonly accepted sense) and yet by the existing order of management, from such material the choice has to be made.

The yeomanry of Western Pennsylvania constitute the strength of the Republican party of the State, and yet of the three divisions (politically) of its territory their section is least regarded in the disposition of official honors. Their community interests are certainly commensurate with either of those of the other partitions. The retiring Senator is their Senator, and they are fairly entitled, certainly, to have a voice in the nomination of his successor. With men well up to the mark of suitability for the place—men of standard excellence in every respect, like Thomas Williams, for instance—why should we look beyond the mountains for a substitute? ALLEGHENY.

LONDON, November 12.—The London Times of this morning, says: Considering the difficult position of the President of the United States, and his efforts to prevent the invasion of the British Territory, in North America, it would see with satisfaction some compliance with his request in behalf of the Fenians who had been convicted of treason and sentenced to death; but still it would concede no immunity in case of another invasion.

FENIAN TRIALS.

Argument of Counsels—William Duggan Acquitted.

TORONTO, C. W., Oct. 12.—The Court met at 12 o'clock to-day. From the scarcity of spectators it was evident that the excitement which, during the past week, has existed regarding the Fenian trials, was considerably abated. The members of the bar present were Hon. J. H. Cameron, R. A. Harrison, L. L. D., and J. McNab, for the Crown, and K. McKinzie, J. Fleming Murphy for the accused. At a quarter past twelve His Lordship took his seat on the bench. William Duggan was the first who was placed in the dock. He is stout, able-bodied looking man, apparently between forty and fifty years of age.

Mr. McKenzie—I move, my Lord, in this case to have the indictment quashed on the same grounds as that relied on in the case of the Queen vs. O'Neil and others.

The prisoner exercised his right and challenged through his counsel, thirteen jurors before a jury was empannelled.

Mr. McKenzie—"Before my learned friend Mr. McNab opens the case, I would move the Court that it calls upon the Crown, to select on what count in the indictment, they propose to try the prisoner; whether they elect him to be tried as an American citizen or British subject. I think that this is the proper time to do so; I submit, the prisoner has no right to be tried on two distinct offences on the same indictment.

Mr. Harrison—My Lord, I submit that this is not a proper time to bring forward such an objection.

After a lengthy argument between counsel His Lordship rejected Mr. McKinzie's motion.

Mr. McNab opened the case for the Crown in a short address.

After the examination of witnesses Hon. Cameron said that, it being half-past five, it would be better perhaps to reserve the proceedings for the defense till to-morrow, and the jury could be locked up for the night.

A juryman asked whether there was any need of hearing evidence for the defense in case they were agreed that no case was made out. The Judge said there would not.

Juryman—We are unanimously of opinion we must acquit the prisoner.

His Lordship—That disposes of it.

The Clerk recorded and declared the verdict "Not Guilty."

His Lordship, addressing the prisoner, said: William Duggan, the jury found you not guilty, and I think properly so. You have received a character in three brief words, which state that you are an "honest, hard drinking, hard working man." Contract that character, if you can, and be in future an honest, hard working man, and all will be right. Now you are at liberty.

The Jumel Will Case Concluded—The State Prison—A Reform Needed—Celebration Ceremony.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The Jumel will case was commenced and concluded to-day in the Supreme Court. The Jury, after an absence of five minutes, rendered a verdict in substance, that the testatrix was in an unsound state of mind when she made the will.

The Evening Express says that an officer of one of the benevolent institutions of this city, recently paid an official visit to the State prison at Sing Sing and reports a most injudicious and inhuman method of discipline prevalent in that institution, and strongly recommends an investigation by the prison association.

Mr. Williams, the Episcopal clergyman who was charged with picking the pocket of a lady in a 5th Avenue stage, has been released on bail.

THE FAMINE IN INDIA.

Terrible Suffering and Heavy Mortality—the Visitation Increasing.

The Times correspondent gives the following interesting particulars of the great famine in India:

A Calcutta paper, of August 16th, says: Twenty thousand paupers from the famine-stricken districts have inundated Calcutta, and the arrivals are reckoned at two hundred a day. We have, on the highest authority, a frightful picture of the prevailing destitution especially in Cuttack. It would be difficult to exaggerate the magnitude and extent of the calamity; all the accounts I have seen have underrated it. It is difficult to obtain reliable statistics as to the mortality from famine, and cholera occasioned by it; but all I have seen and heard convinces me that it has been on a scale of frightful magnitude.

There are still four long black months before us, hough for a month past there has seemed to be some slight abatement in the distress. In the four districts of Bolasare, Midnapoor, Sarum and Tirhoor over forty thousand non-laboring paupers were being relieved daily in the latter part of July, beside seven thousand who were able to make some return for food by working. A week later we find thirty-four thousand relieved daily in Bolasare and Midnapoor alone, while Pooree and Nudda add 17,000 more to the said list. It is believed that in Cuttack the majority of the people must die before relief can reach them, while one thousand persons a day were perishing at the single station of Bolasare.

A vessel, the Tubal Cain, which was bringing them food was driven off by a storm and compelled to throw overboard 1500 bags of rice, but this is not all and possibly not the worst. The new crop of rice will soon be obtained, but it is likely to add a new source of danger; for, lacking other food the poor people will devour it in its immature and unwholesome state and a dreadful pestilence will probably thus be produced.

Unless the land can be covered with a net work of railroads and canals, there seems no escape from the frequent repetition of such calamities, and that day is far distant.

Another account says: When the famine was at its height, the starving poor, we are told, crowded into the streets of Calcutta, and it was estimated that no fewer than twenty to twenty-five thousand starving people, were wandering about the capitol. At Mullick's Ghat, where the Bombay merchants raised a fund and distributed food, there were at one time 7,000 famishing applicants crowded up. They were described as placed in order upon an open space waiting for the distribution. On one side nearly 4,000 Hindoos, each with a leaf platter before him, were scattered on the wet ground hastily partaking of the scanty dole they received. On the other side were thousands of famishing Musselmans, ranged in like manner and watching with silent and greedy eagerness the meal of their Hindoo brethren, and counting with bitter longings the minutes until their turns should come. Under the shelter of the Ghat crowded the women, girls and children.

Outside the gates were hundreds and hundreds who had lost their chance till the next distribution, but over all a horrible dead silence—no chattering or converse—hardly a sound excepting when, at intervals, some wretch threw up his arms with an ejaculation to heaven, wrung from him by the unappeasable pangs of hunger. More than this, officials wrote home descriptions of meeting dead bodies in every morning's ride—bodies lying in the road with the village dogs eating them at leisure.

A Calcutta journal stated that in Balasore having a population of 12,000, the deaths amounted to 300 a day, and on the Government demanding of the officials a report against the libel, the collector of the district replied that on the 8th of August he had 245 in the city, on the 9th, 151, and for the week ending the 9th, 126 a day. The bodies sometimes remaining unburied for three days.

The province of Orissa suffered the most severely, one paper declaring that 400,000 souls have perished in maritime Orissa alone. Indeed a telegram from India announces that half the population of Orissa have perished in the famine—that is, fully two millions and a half of people.

THE FENIANS.

Another Canadian Invasion—Stephens not yet Departed for Ireland—Instructions to the Circles Throughout the Country.

NEW YORK, November 10.—Business is progressing very smoothly at the Stephens' Head Quarters just now, money and arms continue to flow in with increased rapidity, one United States regiment contributed three hundred and eighty-one dollars.

Mr. Stephens has not yet taken his departure for Ireland.

The World believes that the Fenians contemplate a renewal of their movements against the British North American possessions, and are making active preparations for another invasion of Canada.

A circular is out in a letter of instructions to the centre of each circle in the country, giving directions as to the organization of infantry, artillery and cavalry regiments, and the proper uniforms for each corps, etc. It eminates from the Head Quarters of the Roberts branch of the Fenian brotherhood.

Mexican Matters—Protest from Ortega

BROWNSVILLE, Nov. 8—VIA NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 12—The Herald's special says: General Ortega and suite arrived at Brazos on the 3d, but were arrested by the military authorities and afterwards permitted to return to New Orleans, but remained at Brazos.

A protest from General Ortega and the members of his suite, appears in the Rio Grande Courier of this morning.

The General first refers to the guarantees under which he came—guarantees which he claims, in their scope, tacitly admit his proper political character as the constitutional President of the Mexican Republic. He then recites the acts accompanying and including the arrest, and protests, first, against the violation of the individual guarantees given by the law of this country to foreigners traveling therein; second, in the name of and as President of the Mexican Republic as constituting an indirect interference by armed force of the United States in the solution of the local Mexican question; and third, against any act, direct or indirect, which, through attempts to impose upon the people of Mexico the fractional government of Don Benito Juarez.

I am satisfied that the policy here will be hereafter much more active in support of Juarez, and that at least a strong moral influence will be exerted to settle the troubles over the river.

MATAMORAS, Nov. 6.—Canales still holds the city. On the afternoon of the 2d, a courier arrived here from Juarez bearing a peremptory order for the surrender of the city to Tapia. After holding a council of his officers, Canales consented to surrender on the following conditions, viz:

The troops to pass beyond the State of Tamaulipas, all the acts of Canales administration to be declared valid, no one to be prosecuted for political acts since the 12th of August, Canales to remain in command of the troops. These conditions Tapia styled unworthy of notice, and stated that he should attack the town at an early day. Canales continues to exact money from the people.

An Injunction Served on Governor Fletcher—Election Returns—Radical Majority in Missouri 25,000.

ST. LOUIS, November 12.—Injunctions, at the instance of Morris, Jessup & Co., New York, have been served upon Governor Fletcher and railroad companies to prevent them from selling the Cairo and Fulton Railroad for the benefit of that State. The petitioners for injunctions hold three hundred and ninety-four thousand dollars in bonds on the said road, secured by two deeds of trust, and claim that the only right the State has in the road is that of a mortgage, and subject to ordinary qualities and limitations of such instrument. The case will come before the United States Circuit Court in the April session.

Eighty counties in this State give an official reported Radical majority of 14,500. The counties yet to hear from will probable increase it to between twenty and twenty-five thousand.

Mexican Affairs—Report Contradicted—Col. McIvor Released.

NEW ORLEANS, November 12.—H. A. De La Raintree, Secretary of the Mexican Legation under the ministry of McLain, just returned from Chihuahua, publishes a brief letter in the Picayune, contradicting the rumors and statements that in consideration of the countenance and support afforded President Juarez by our Government, he would consent to alienate portions of the Mexican Republic.

Colonel McIvor, late of the rebel army, who has been held under military arrest, has been released.

The grand meteoric display between midnight and dawn promises to be witnessed by many.

Obsequies of a Rebel General—Success of the New Cotton Market.

LOUISVILLE, November 13.—The remains of ex-rebel General Hanson were interred at Lexington yesterday after the preliminary exercises here. There was no disturbance.

McFerran, Armstrong & Co., one of six of our most prominent cotton merchant firms, to-day inaugurated a daily three o'clock afternoon market by auction, whereby planters have the option to take the prices last offered. The affair turned out a splendid success, 125 bales being offered, and 65 sold at 31¾@33c.

The Canadian Confederation Scheme.

KINGSTON, C. W., Nov. 12.—It is understood that a document will be made public after the departure of the ministerial delegation, announcing important particulars of the course to be pursued by them in England relative to the Confederation scheme.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Disasters at Sea—Amount of Coin in the U. S. Treasury—Circular from Secretary McCulloch—Internal Revenue—The Pardon of Jeff. Davis Asked For—The Public Lands.

WASHINGTON, November 12.—Consul Kirkpatrick, at Nassau, reports additional disasters by the recent gale, among which are several American vessels lost.

The examination of applicants for Consular places proves not to be a mere form, but is rigid and thorough. Out of the numerous candidates who have presented themselves, only two thus far have been passed by the Board.

The amount of coin on hand to-day in the Treasury was $66,977,759, and coin certificates $20,851,560; total, $87,829,319.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a circular amending the following paragraph contained in the Treasury Department circular of May 27th, 1847, to the Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer of the United States, and depositories of public moneys: Whenever any disbursing officer or disbursing agent shall die, resign, or be superceded or removed, you will at once stop further payment of his drafts or checks previously drawn. Hereafter checks previously drawn by disbursing agents who may die, resign, or be removed, will be paid from funds on hand to their credit unless the same shall have been drawn more than four months before their presentations, or there are reasons for suspecting fraud, or circumstances which would lead a judicious officer to decline to pay the same. Referring, also, to the directions in said circular, of the same date, to disbursing officers and agents, that public depositories will not be required to pay drafts of disbursing officers when payable to any person or his order. The construction which has been placed upon these instructions forbidding the payment of such drafts payable to order is hereby modified, and hereafter the Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer and Public Depositories are authorized, in their discretion, when satisfied of the correctness of the indorsements, to pay drafts payable to order in cases where serious inconvenience, delay or injury would result by refusing to pay the same.

The following appointments of Internal Revenue officers were made to-day: Daniel H. Neiman, Assessor for the 10th district of Pennsylvania; Thomas Miller, Assessor for the 7th district of Ohio.

The receipts from Internal Revenue to-day were $649,174 84.

Messrs. Lowry and Hillyer, Commissioners from Mississippi to ask for the pardon of Jeff. Davis, were at the White House to-day, and left a note asking the President to fix a day for an interview.

The General Land Office has received returns from Tallahassee, Florida, showing that during October 22,446 acres of the public lands were disposed of in that State for actual settlement under the Homestead law.

Returns from the local office at St. Peter, Minnesota, show that during the past month 3,688 acres were disposed of.

The Southern Press on the Northern Elections—The West as Radical as the East—The Fate of the Constitutional Amendment.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The steamship New York, from Bremen on the 28th, has arrived.

The following is the Richmond Whig's leader on the late elections: "Just as we thought, just as we said they would do. The Radicals have swept the north, and in that word we include the west, which seems to rival New England in radicalism. We are accustomed to distinguish the western from the northern States by kind, almost tender, phrases, and, to expect from them manifestations of conservatism not looked for in the former, we will not be apt to do so hereafter.

The West is thoroughly imbued with the rancorous spirit of Radicalism. Some of the heartiest haters and bitterest persecutors of the South are from the Western and Northwestern States, such as Wade, Schenck, Shellabarger, Julian, Grimes, &c. With the exception of Maryland and the unflinching little Delaware, which always thinks and acts for herself, the whole North has gone just as we expected, for itself, against the South, against the Union, and against the Constitution. Not even could the heavy Conservative majority in New York city redeem the State of New York. The majorities in the several districts more than counterbalanced it.

We are happy to be able to say that the spirits of our people do not appear at all depressed by the results of these elections. They expected nothing else, and are therefore not disappointed. The indications are that the Northern sectional party has rather lost than gained. It had already reached that position in which it had everything to fear and little to hope. It could not expect to increase its power by new accessions, but had cause to apprehend the losses and gliding away of its strength. Radicalism may be said to have attained its culminating point and henceforward its course will downward.

The effect of these elections upon the fate of the Constitutional Amendment is the interesting point of inquiry. The fidelity of Maryland and Delaware to Conservativeism has, as far as we can judge, sealed the fate of that amendment. It required but ten States to defeat, and we now have fourteen arrayed against it. There would seem to be but one mode of securing its paltry territories into States.

Prices of Breadstuffs Contrasted.

NEW YORK, November 12.—The Express contrasts the prices of breadstuffs with those ruling through the past six years, by which it appears that flour is now 42 per cent. higher than during the highest market, when gold was much higher than now, and adds: Although there may be no facts to warrant the present extraordinary price for breadstuffs there is yet a cause for the advance, and that cause is speculative mania. Western dealers hold back their produce, and the result is seen in the following receipts of flour and wheat at Tide Water, from the opening of navigation to the close of October: Flour—In 1866, 213,700 bbls; in 1865, 650,700 bbls; in 1864, 920,100. Wheat—In 1866, 3,893,900 bu; in 1865, 6,707,800 bu; in 1864, 13,926,000 bu. With these light receipts at seaboard, and within two or three weeks of the close of navigation, it is not surprising that the idea of a short supply for the winter causes extravagant speculation, but let the grain holders look out and stand from under.

Russian-American Telegraph.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 12—The bark Onward reports having left at Petropoulowski fifteen operators and constructors in the service of the Russian-American telegraph expedition.

Ice had commenced forming when the Onward left, but the men were comfortably housed for the winter.

The people of Petropoulowski treat the party with great hospitality.

Colonel Bulkley started for Anadyr Bay, August 2d, and is expected here during the present month.

Germanic Confederation.

NEW YORK, November 12.—A London letter says: There seems little reason to doubt that the King of Holland will at once join the North German Confederation. There is a strong party in the country which is not only willing, but anxious to transfer the government of the country to Prussia, and if its members can do no more, they can at least induce the King to resign his pretensions to the Government of Luxenbourg. Since 1839 that Duchy has formed a part of the German Bund, and has been garrisoned by Prussian troops. Not a single Dutch soldier has ever occupied the fortress, and to all intents and purposes the place was a part of Germany, in agreement with the provision of the Congress of Vienna.

Colorado Election—Letter from Gov. Cummings.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—A letter published from Governor Cummings, of Colorado, denies the aspersions against him for giving a certificate of election to Mr. Hunt as a Congressional delegate. He states that Hunt received a legal majority of the votes, the Board of Canvassers having counted for Chilicott, the candidate of the party anxious for the admission of Colorado as a State, the votes of a company of volunteers formed of rebel prisoners enlisted at Chicago, who had no right to vote.

Murderers of Mrs. Garven and Daughter

BRANCHVILLE, S. C., November 12.—The negroes who killed Mrs. Garven and daughter, near Orangeburg, were hung on Saturday by the citizens. The freemen of the vicinity were so incensed against the perpetrators of the outrage that they wanted to burn the murderers, but were prevented by the whites.

Missionary Exercises.

BOSTON, Nov. 12.—Interesting and impressive farewell services were held this afternoon on board the missionary ship Morning Star, a vessel built with the means raised by 150,000 children of the American Sabbath Schools. The services were witnessed by over two thousand persons.

—It is said that an artificial ivory is now made in France from a paste of papier mache and gelatin. Billiard balls formed of this material, though barely a third of the price of those made from real ivory, are yet so durable and elastic that they can be thrown from the top of the house on to the pavement, or violently struck with a hammer, without injury. With this same paste, to which the name of Parisian marble is given, among many other things, the finest and most complicated moldings for ceilings can be made, or capitals of columns can be constructed in any color so as to resemble the most valuable marbles.

—The Newburyport Herald tells a story of a newly married couple who attended a launch in the city. A staging gave way and let the gentle man into the water. Before he was rescued his wig came off and floated away. When he was pulled out, bald and drenched, his wife refused to recognize him, and besought the crowd that they would save her husband, pointing frantically to a bunch of hair drifting down the tide.

—Coal veins, respectively six and three feet in thickness, have been struck near Leavenworth at a distance of about six hundred feet beneath the surface. The Leavenworth Conservative thinks the supply will be sufficient for the entire State of Kansas.

The Fiery Rain-storm a Fizzle.

Faithful in the discharge of our duties as reporter of things transpiring, we determined last night to watch for the grand display of shooting among the stars, promised by the followers of Pythagoras. The programme laid down by these men of science for the proper observation of the phenomena, was carefully studied and after learning the precise location of Saturn, Jupiter, Mars, Venus, Mercury, Uranus, Neptune and the asteroids we slowly wended our way to a height which was high enough to look down upon the city and to afford us a clear, uninterrupted vision of the heavens. Perching up in the highest tree we could find, with a dark lantern in our button hole and a darker map in our hand, we patiently awaited the setting off of the meteors. We had studied learned expressions with stunning adjectives and only wanted a solitary shot across the blue etherial dome to fly into ecstacies and give vent to a column of report in our journal. The minutes rolled on tediously, but 'nary a star moved from its place. We were not to be discouraged, however, and through chattering teeth almost prayed that some mischievous little star might skip from the milky way (for our hope was on the wane.) But alas! the little jewels clung with wonderful pertinacity to their snowy path, and—nary a star shot. We had faith in Venus. If the stars were animated by spirits kindred to our own—as demonologists have asserted—we had unbounded confidence in the belief, that hundreds of the lesser lights would dance attendance upon the queen of beauty. But Venus had no charms, and in her our faith rapidly vanished, for nary a star shot. Then we thought of "Old Mars" whom we had heard repeatedly eulogized in the stump speeches of the patriots who used to urge our entry into shooting circles. If there was any shooting to be done certainly Mars would be in, but he wasn't. There was not a single shot about or near him that we could discover through our glass, (an inverted tumbler) and we had no more abiding faith in his warlike character. Mars may be very good in his place, but short of advertising rates, we can take no further notice of him. We thought of Neptune, but imagined him a wet old "cuss," who would put out the heavenly rockets did they shoot into his bosom. We did not pay much attention to his quarters. Knowing Saturn had a circle, we had hoped to see the stars swing round it, more especially since the belt was made up of bottled fluid. But the heavens contained no spirit akin to Andrew's, and Saturn was neglected. Alas! that Paracelsus did not live in our day to give some misguided star, the spirit which controls the White House. In short, we closely observed every quarter of the heavens, measured the fixed and variable stars, believed ourself an astronomer, theorized about the cause of meteors, wondered about the milky way, revelled in contemplating the Nebulæ, but all to no purpose. There was 'nary a shot. The clerk of the weather, indifferent to the gratuitous announcements his pyrotechnic display received from the press, failed to keep the engagement with the public. Why, we do not know. We had a reserved seat and had determined to give the entertainment an extended notice had we witnessed it. As the curtain of morning dropped over the dark stage, and as the last star got in behind the scenes, we retraced our steps homewards and voted astronomy a bore, the clerk of the weather a poor manager, and the stars not up to their parts. We now put it upon record that the promised display was a fizzle, and doubtless good folks who stay up to-night to see the shower will be able to appreciate our experience last night.

The Robbery at the Union Depot—The Stolen Money Found.

In our issue of the 29th of October we published an account of a Mr. Jonathan Townsend having been robbed, on the day previous, of $4,300 at the Union Depot, while about to take the eastern bound train for his home in Haynesville, New Jersey. Least any of our readers should have forgotten the circumstances as narrated, we republish the details. He had been out west as far as Zanesville, Ohio, and on his return to this city he put up at the Red Lion Hotel, having at that time in his possession $4,850 in greenbacks. This sum he divided, placing $4,300, closely wrapped in a piece of newspaper, in his left trousers pocket, and the remainder, $550, in the breast pocket of his vest. On leaving the hotel on the night of the robbery for the Union Depot, he examined both packages and found them all right.

He took a street car for the depot and stood upon the rear platform with six or seven others. At the depot he bought his ticket with money from his vest pocket, and proceeded to his berth in the sleeping car. After taking his seat he put his hand in his trousers pocket and found that the pocket had been cut open and the money taken out. He cried out immediately that he was cut and instant search was made through the train for the thief and the money, though without any result. As soon as the alarm was given two men came to Mr. Townsend and evinced the deepest concern in the affair, advising him to offer a reward of $2,000 at least, as only through that means might he hope to recover his money. Mr. Townsend offered a reward of $1,000 for the restoration of his money, and $500 for the detection of the thief. The police made every exertion to ferret out the perpetrators of this bold robbery, but without effect, until yesterday, when officer Seth Wilmot learned through a source he deemed authentic that a well-known citizen, living near the Sharpsburg bridge, Collins township, had come to this city on Saturday with $4,000, half of which sum was in $100 greenbacks, and visited a wealthy gentleman who he requested to give him $1,000 bills in exchange for the smaller ones. The money answering the description of that lost by Townsend in every particular, excited the suspicion of the latter, and he accordingly asked his friend how he had come into possession of so much wealth. He, who had the money and desired to exchange it, answered that he had found it on the Sharpsburg plank road. Unable to negociate an exchange, the finder of the money returned to his home while his friend hastened immediately to communicate his discovery to the police, who will proceed to arrest the finder this morning, after which we will be permitted to give his name publicity. We have no doubt the gentleman who has the money found it as he avers, but what justification he can furnish for keeping his good luck a secret we cannot imagine, as he must have known it had been placed there by thieves, or at all events was not his legal property. We shall be able to give further particulars to-morrow.

A Gas Saver.

We take pleasure in referring our patrons to the card of the Pittsburgh Gas Saving Company. We have witnessed the workings of the Saver at the Company's office, and are satisfied there is no doubt but that they materially increase the illuminating powers of the Pittsburgh gas. The modus operandi: The Saver is attached to the Gas Company metre, and is charged with a hydro-carbon fluid and as the gas passes through it is carbonized and its illuminating properties increased doubly, thereby reducing your burners to one-half the size you are using. You save fifty per cent. of your gas, and have as much light as you have under the present use. The gentlemanly Secretary, Mr. Robert Christy, or his assistant, Mr. Henderson, will take pleasure in showing the workings of the Saver, at their office, No. 2 Merchants' Hotel, Smithfield street. This is important to gas consumers, and we invite special attention to it.

The Wrong Coat.

A few evenings since two men named D. P. Harr and Wm. Sanders, happened to be at the same time in a barber-shop in the Fifth ward. They hung their coats side by side and proceeded to "take a shave." Sanders, by ill luck, had his face scraped smooth before the other had been finished, and put on one of the coats and left the shop. Unfortunately he had put on the wrong coat, and nothing was left for Harr but to put on the wrong coat too, which he did, excusing the other on the ground that he was evidently drunk. All that worried him was the fact that, in the pocket of his coat, was the sum of $2 45, which he feared might not be in it when he got his garment. He was right. He recovered his coat and forty-five cents of the money, but the two dollars were missing. Complaint was made before Alderman Taylor, and the wrong-coat-man was arrested and held for a hearing to-day.

Criminal Court.

The November term of the United States Circuit Court for this district met yesterday morning at ten o'clock, Hon. Wilson McCandless on the bench.

At the special term of the Circuit Court the trial list was adjourned over until May next, in consequence of the non-assignment of circuits of the Circuit Judges, made necessary by the reduction in the number of Supreme Judges. On the opening of the Court, this morning, his Honor, Judge McCandless, referred to the postponement of the cases, and remarked that there was consequently no business to be transacted. A venire of jurors had been summoned, but the summons were recalled some weeks since. Court then adjourned.

Blood-thirsty Hannah.—Thomas L. Williams and his wife live in Bank alley, and so do Ann McCarthy and Hannah Morrison There seems to be not the best of feeling existing between the neighbors, for a day or two since, Mrs. McCarthy and Mrs. Morrison went to the house of Mrs. Williams and used the most insulting and threatening language towards her. Hannah even went so far as to declare emphatically that she would not leave the premises until blood had been spilled. She did, however, and all parties still keep their share of the vital fluid. For fear of a different state of matters, however, Mr. Williams went before Alderman Taylor, and made information against his neighbors for surety of the peace. Warrants were issued.

Attempted Outrage in Manchester—The Injured Parties Refuse to Prosecute.

Two young girls, the eldest of whom could not have been more than seventeen, came to the office of Alderman Donaldson on Saturday and made the following statement: On Friday evening they were walking along Penn street near St. Clair, when they were accosted by a young man, who had been paying lover like attentions to one of the girls for some time previous, and invited by him to take a ride down to Manchester in one of the street cars. They consented, but had scarce seated themselves in the vehicle when two more young men entered the car and familiarly addressed their male companion, who began a desultory conversation with them that was kept up until they had almost reached the Manchester terminus of the road, when the strangers bid their associate adieu and left the car. When the conveyance reached the stables their gallant requested them to walk across an open field with him as on the opposite side they could take the return cars for this city by way of the Rebecca street route. They consented to the arrangement and started across the field, but they had got but a short distance when they were met by the two young men who had been their companions in the car. Without speaking a word the three ruffians made a grossly indecent assault upon the girls, knocking them down and tearing their clothing, while the terrified creatures called loudly for succor. Their cries reached the ears of some of the employees at the car stables, who came immediately to their assistance. On the approach of the men, however, the wretches fled down the field in the direction of the Pittsburgh and Cleveland Railroad, and left the girls in the hands of their rescuers. When the girls had told their story the Magistrate prepared to draw up an information against the young man who had went with them as an escort from the city, but to this the girls objected, stating that they were willing to do so if their names would not be made public, assuring the Alderman that if their parents knew of the occurrence they would be severely punished, if not murdered outright. In view of this fact the Magistrate, although knowing the guilty parties perfectly well, has been unable to get a legal hold upon them, and consequently they are still at large. We sincerely trust that the murderous young scoundrels that could thus concoct such a cool and deliberate outrage will not long escape the meshes of the law and the penalty due their offence.

A Precocious Horse Thief.

On the 28th of October last a young man named C. R. Gamble went to the livery stable J. K. Dain, on Penn street, in the Fifth ward, and hired a saddle horse, with saddle and saddle cloth, bridle &c., the whole establishment valued at $200. At the time when the man should have returned with the horse and accoutrements to the stable he staid away and continued to do so for successive days. Search was made, and at length the horse was recovered at Butler, where the fellow had sold them, but Gamble still gambolled at liberty. A few days since officer Bell, of Alderman Taylor's police, learned that the escaped thief was in the neighborhood of New Castle. Thither he went on Saturday, armed with a warrant for the arrest of Gamble, and found his customer snugly ensconced in the Lawrence county jail, where he had been placed by Justice J. M. Craig to await his trial on another charge of horse stealing. It seems that after he had sold Mr. Dain's horse, Gamble had procured a horse and buggy from some person near New Castle, and endeavored to sell the equipage. His manner in endeavoring to dispose of the property excited suspicion and he was arrested, the theft proved and he committed as aforesaid. Officer Bell obtained possession of Gamble's person and brought him before Alderman Taylor. The fact of the theft was clearly proved and the thief was committed to jail by the magistrate to await his trial at Court. He gave officer Bell the address of his wife in Allegheny city, with the request that she might be sent for. The officer went to the address but the lady had departed. Mr. Bell was somewhat astonished to learn from the neighbors that Gamble had, besides the wife mentioned, three other wives all living in Allegheny. Considering that the fast man is a youth, apparently not more than twenty years of age, this may be considered as pretty well.

Heavy Till Robbery.

Confidence in our fellow man is a capital thing; so is sugar; but too much confidence is like too much sugar—it makes a man sick. We imagine that Mr. John B. Sneathen, of this city has become sick from too free an indulgence in confidence.

Mr. Sneathen keeps a boat store on Water street, near Smithfield. Some two weeks ago a British subject named Alexander McDonnell, hailing from Prince Edward's Island, made application to Mr. Sneathen for a situation as a clerk. He brought with him several recommendations from prominent men, and Mr. S., without hesitation, employed him. He not only employed him, but seems to have forthwith made him the confidential man of the establishment. At all events McDonnell slept at the store, and had charge of the money till. On Sunday night he retired to rest as usual, while in the money till there were five hundred dollars in Seven-Thirty bonds, and fifty in coupons. Yesterday morning the two weeks old confidential clerk was missing, and, worse yet, so were the $550. The man and the money are still both among the minus quantities, and there has, as yet, been no clue to the one or the other. In the room which contained the till was a safe in which was deposited some $20,000, but into this the thief did not penetrate.

A Jolly Affair.

An interesting young lady with a prepossessing physique, named Martha L. Connelly, appeared before Alderman Donaldson, yesterday, and lodged an information against Sarah Jolly, for trover and conversion. It appears the prosecutor took up her lodgings in the home of Sarah, in the First ward, Allegheny, some time last spring, bringing with her considerable personal property. During her stay beneath the roof of Miss Jolly, Martha plyed an unlawful calling and earned a considerable amount of money, whereby all of which went into a common fund, out of which the expenses of the house were paid. A few days since, Martha quarrelled with the hostess and quitted the household, to which she returned yesterday and demanded that the property she had brought with her on her arrival, should be given to her again. This modest request Mrs. Jolly refused to comply with, alleging that Martha owed her a board bill of thirty dollars that must be liquidated before she would give up the goods. Finding that she had no other redress but through the law, Martha repaired to the office of the magistrate mentioned and made oath as stated. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the accused.

Disher to be Dished.

Thomas W. Jones and Barbara Disher live neighbors to each other in Redout alley, in the First ward, in this city. Sad to say, they do not live in that harmony towards each other that should exist among neighbors. Not long since Mrs. Disher visited Mr. Jones and indulged in some most abusive and threatening language, and before she left she raised the iron poker, vowing that she would knock Jones with it to the celebrated locker of his relative, Davy. Still more recently she went to Jones' residence and put some of her threats into deeds. So far did she carry her activity that she broke the doors of his domicile, and smashed things up in a general way. This was the feather that broke the camel, Jones' back, and he went complainingly to Alderman Lynch. That Magistrate issued a warrant for the arrest of the too vigorous Disher.

A Ferocious Dog.—John Newmeyer, living on Centre avenue, has in his possession a ferocious dog. A day or two since, a little girl, child of George Rosner, living near Mr. Newmeyer, went into the house of the latter while the dog was there. The animal immediately sprang at the child and bit her through the upper lip. Mr. Rosner, father of the injured child, made information before Alderman Taylor against the proprietor of the dog, but the matter was finally settled without further difficulty.

False Pretence.—C. Wehrung, the proprietor of a drinking saloon on the corner of Fifth and Wylie streets, appeared before Alderman Lynch yesterday and made oath against William Coles for false pretence. The accused is alleged to have borrowed from the deponent three dollars, stating that Alderman Lynch sent him for it. A warrant has been issued for William's arrest.

Will Meet.—The National Wool Growers' Convention will assemble to-morrow at Cleveland. The importance of this meeting will be fully recognized by all persons interested in wool growing. Delegates are expected to be in attendance from all the States interested in wool—sheep's wool—in the Union, and the proceedings will be looked for with much interest.

Hit in the Eye.—Charles Lindsay told Alderman Strain yesterday that Andrew Wilson, on the 10th instant, attacked him, struck him in the eye, knocked him down and kicked him, which little transaction occurred in the Fifth ward. At the request of Lindsay, the Alderman issued a warrant for the arrest of the assailant on a charge of assault and battery.

Stole a Saddle.—James Nesbitt yesterday made information before Alderman Strain, charging one George More with larceny. It is alleged that the accused recently took from the premises of Mr. Edward Rana, in East Liberty, a saddle and breechings, the property of Mr. Rana. The alleged thief was arrested and held for a hearing.

Upwards of 250,000 families are now using the Wheeler & Wilson machines, and they have never failed yet to give satisfaction. Sumner & Co., the western agents, at 29 Fifth street, have a fine stock on hand, from which you can make your selection. Every machine they sell is warranted.

Personal.—Major General J. B. Kiddoo, Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau in Texas, is now stopping at the Monongahela House. He is en route to Washington, where he goes to hold a consultation with Major General Howard, upon affairs pertaining to the Bureau in Texas. He leaves this evening.

Discharged.—Margaret Thomas came to the office of Justice Lippert yesterday, made oath against Andrew Monroe for assault and battery. The accused was arrested but was discharged, the evidence being deemed insufficient to warrant the proceedings.

CHICAGO.

BUCKLE has sometimes a bland way of putting things. He says the type of Civilization which obtains in any particular spot depends on the geographical surroundings thereof, and hence that many, if not most, of the obliquities observable in mental theories and moral conduct as inevitable, and deserving of neither praise nor blame. Chicago furnishes the most striking illustration of the verity of this philosophical hypothesis afforded on this continent. Having Lake Michigan in front of it, and a prairie behind, its citizens and journals have a certain development of "wind" quite superlative. Hence the perpetual and prodigious clatter they keep up about the unprecedented growth and importance of their city. When their statements are subjected to any actual tests, they are invariably found empty, but this does not hinder the repetition of them under one modification or another.

All summer Chicago has vaunted the rapidity and substantialness of its increase in population, in business, in wealth, in architecture, and in about everything else. Judging from its boastings novices have inferred that so grand and superb a city never before existed among the nations; that it sate, a queen, drawing to itself the unadulterated admiration of mankind; that New York sank almost into insignificance in comparison with it; and that St. Louis and Cincinnati were not even worthy to be its servitors. If the census takers and the election boards did not make returns, somewhat of this extravagance might be maintained; but, unfortunately, these officials are dull, prosaic creatures, destitute of rhetoric themselves and not appreciating it in others. Invariably their returns are so incisive as to take the "wind" out of Chicago, and expose it to jeers or contempt.

At the late election in Cincinnati 29,723 votes were polled. If the voters living in so much of the town as lies on the Kentucky side of the river should be included, as they properly ought in an estimate of this sort, the total voting population would be raised to over 35,000. In Chicago, at the late election, only 15,975 votes were polled, or a trifle over half as many as were polled in Cincinnati, excluding the Kentucky side. It is possible the canvass was better managed, and hence more searching in Cincinnati than in Chicago, but, in the absence of reasonable proof, it is as fair to infer the remissness was in one city as in the other. It must be taken, therefore, for the present, as proved that Cincinnati, on the Ohio side alone, has twice as many inhabitants as Chicago.

The number of votes polled at St. Louis does not furnish reliable data for comparison, either with Chicago or Cincinnati, for the plain reason that by the Constitution of Missouri, as it stands, large classes of adult males are excluded from the right of suffrage. The Conservatives claim, and perhaps with truth, that but for the disfranchisement of the rebels they would have control of the city and commonwealth by large majorities. The returns of the election held in the city of St. Louis, the present month, are not before us; but in the county in which it is situated, 21,062 votes were polled, which is within 3,000 of as many as were ever polled in Cook county, of which Chicago is the capital. Hence, the inference is allowable that St. Louis is considerably more populous than Chicago.

In the congeries of municipalities known commercially as Pittsburgh, there were polled this year 23,303 votes, or 7,388 more than were polled in Chicago; showing that the population here is one-half larger than there. If it is urged on the part of Chicago that the full vote was not polled in that city, we answer that there was a demonstrable deficiency here. The aggregate vote here at the late October election was somewhat smaller than two years ago, while the taxables now numbered almost 5,000 more than then. If the full vote had been polled the aggregate would have stood but a trifle below that of Cincinnati.

AUTHORITY OF SUCCESS.

Cable telegrams state that at a recent banquet Lord DERBY, the British Prime Minister, made a friendly allusion to the United States, expressing the hope that any question between the governments of the two countries might be approached in a forbearing and conciliatory spirit, calculated to remove all bitterness and cement the friendship of the two nations. This was understood, as it was manifestly designed, to indicate the temper in which Her Majesty's government had concluded henceforward to conduct the negotiation upon the demand from this side for indemnity for spoliations upon our commerce by Anglo-Rebel privateers during the recent war. It is not to be supposed that the sentiments of the British aristocracy towards this country have in reality changed, but a grand success always commands admiration and enkindles respect. As it no longer appears to be in the power of monarchical governments to endanger us; as we have demonstrated the possession of unparalled resources, a tenacity of purpose and a power of endurance unexpected and unconceived; and as our future, notwithstanding some drifting clouds of the late storm still remain in view, presents an aspect of unmatched greatness; our enemies are constrained to do us homage. Whatever questions are in dispute between them and us, will now be readily adjusted on the basis of natural equity and the requirements of acknowledged international law.

This is not a solitary example of the same tendency to worship power. Prussia, under the leadership of BISMARK, made a marvellous stride in national aggrandizement. With a prescience, a vigor, and a rapidity never surpassed, she rose from an interior rank to be a first-class power. At once the bearing towards her of all the great monarchies in Europe was changed. The grandest of them did her reverence.

BEAUTIFUL SENTIMENT.

GEO. D. PRENTICE, of the Louisville Journal, has so far recovered his health as to assume his editorial duties. He announces the fact in the following beautiful manner:

Our heart-felt thanks are due to very many of our brethren of the press for their very kind notices of us during our late illness. Their sympathy soothed and cheered and strengthened us. It seemed to throw a calm and lovely light upon the world and make us wish to linger still among our fellow men. There is much that is beautiful and holy and hallowing in sickness. Its influences are purer and better than those of health. Indeed, the feebleness of the body is often the health of the soul. We see and hear what we may not in the season of our physical strength. Myriad spirits of the air flutter over the dividing line between two worlds, uttering to mortal beings the tones they have learned in heaven. As we move downward upon the sombre and mysterious pathway that leads to the door of the tomb, we behold, as from the depths of a shadowy well or cavern, the pale serenities of floating stars, all invisible in the glare and sunshine of the upper air, and their sacred and blessed light

ALEXANDER CUMMINGS, Governor of Colorado Territory, was long a citizen of Pennsylvania. He is a slippery customer, belonging to the genus, "oily gammon." First and last, he has held to as many principles as ought to suffice for a score of decent men; but his rule is not to hold to one set longer than is perfectly convenient. In the early part of the last summer we heard, what was doubtless true, that he had warmly espoused the President's Policy. Shortly afterwards we encountered him at Altoona, on his way to Denver. On the cars we had a full conversation with him. He professed to be strongly on the side of Congress, and was blissfully confident that Pennsylvania, at the October election, would rebuke the President by a splendid majority of forty thousand. The next we heard of him he had just issued a certificate of election as Delegate in Congress to the Johnson candidate who did not get a majority of the votes cast by the people. Now, we have information that, in obedience to suggestions from Washington, he is laboring to defeat the admission of Colorado as a State. That he will hardly be able to do. In the event of its admission CUMMINGS's present occupation will be gone, and the President will have him on his hands to provide for. If the provision does not equal his expectations—and CUMMINGS is not modest in measuring his own pretensions—he will play the President a trick and come up lustily on the other side. He is a believer in the Christian Scriptures—at least, in that portion which speaks of "being all things to all men," and has acquired singular dexterity in turning sharp corners. Hence, he is a man it is always safe to watch.

PACIFIC RAILROAD EXCURSION.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

JEFFERSON CITY, MO., Nov. 7, 1866.

I did not go with my companions from Fort Riley to Fort Ellsworth. The weather looked a little threatening, and the conveyance (two ambulances and three horses) not being exactly to my mind, I judged it more prudent to remain, and await their coming at St. Louis. So, after taking leave of my buffalo-hunting friends at the Fort, and seeing them off, I took the train east, and passed down the magnificent valley of the Kansas to Wyandotte, on the bank of the Missouri, and on the north bank of the Kansas at its mouth. It is here that the Union Pacific Railroad (Eastern Division) begins, and here the Missouri Pacific Railroad terminates at the State line. Opposite Wyandotte—that is, on the South side of the Kansas, and stretching along the South bank of the Missouri (which at this point changes its course from south to east) is the new and rapidly increasing city of Kansas. Its present population is said to be 12,000. It is beautifully situated on a bluff of moderate height, while the railroads are below the bluff. In its location it resembles Cleveland.

This bids fair to be one of the great cities of this wondrous region, and a very important railroad centre; for, in addition to the two Pacific roads already spoken of, a branch of the Hannibal and St. Joseph Road is in progress from a little place called Cameron to the bank of the Missouri opposite Kansas city. Next week the site of a bridge over the Missouri is to be surveyed, which will put this important branch road in connection with the Union Pacific Railroad, both being of the same guage—four feet eight and a half inches. The Missouri Pacific Road is five feet six inches. But this is not all. Another road, starting from Kansas City, is surveyed, and a large portion of it under contract, to run almost due south, through the eastern range of counties of the State of Kansas, and through the Indian country west of Arkansas to Texas, when it is to unite with a Texas road running north from Galveston. Thus Kansas City will be put into direct communication with the Gulf of Mexico, by a line of railroad between six and seven hundred miles long, and running, throughout its entire length, over what several gentlemen who have been along the route assure us, is one of the most fertile and productive regions on the continent. Some forty or fifty miles south of Kansas City, I am informed, there are inexhaustible deposits of coal. There are also extensive lead mines on the route.

Here, then, is a point from which several roads run to the Atlantic border; another, upon which these eastern roads will all concentrate, will, ere long, unite it with the Pacific at San Francisco, and probably with the Gulf of California; while a third will give them a connection with the almost tropical shores of the Mexican Gulf.

The brain almost reels and staggers in the conformation and boundless capabilities of this Trans-Mississippi portion of our magnificent national domain. Here is the theatre for the grandest development of human energy that the world has ever seen, as it is certainly the most stupendous product of the goodness and grandeur of the Creator to be found on this planet.

"Time's noblest offspring is the last," said Bishop Berkley a century ago, and here it is. From the Mississippi to the Pacific is the last land to be possessed; for beyond that ocean lies old Asia, already too populous, which can only be rejuvenated by the onward march of empire and Christian civilization.

But a truce to moralizing for the present. This day I have passed over 138 miles of this State—a splendid country, principally prairie, with intervening sections of woodland, and some glade, but all very good land—much of it surpassingly fertile. But not one tenth of it is under cultivation, and much of that which is bears the impress of old Missouri slovenliness. In some places Northern emigration is coming in, and there the farms and villages are neat and in good taste. This city is a striking specimen of the old slavery regime—alike destitute of neatness, good taste or enterprise. Still it is coming over; for yesterday it gave upwards of a hundred radical majority. The young men who have lately come in claim to have worked this revolution.

The Republicans are greatly rejoiced at the glorious victory they achieved yesterday in this State, especially at the election of General Pile, over Hogan, in the First District, and at the large aggregate Radical majority in the State. They feel that they are now safe, that the State is permanently pacified, and that the vote of yesterday doubled the value of real estate in Missouri. I have met some Conservatives, and even they talk as if the result would be beneficial. Rebellion in Missouri was scotched in the war; but yesterday it was killed.

To-morrow morning early I shall start for St. Louis. I stopped here at dark this evening, so that I might pass clear through this interesting State by daylight. I expect to remain in that city until my companions return with our own car, when we shall return home. So far, this has been an interesting and delightful excursion. For the kind attentions which have been in every place extended to us, the Eastern excursionists feel profoundly grateful.

Romance of Railway Patent Suits.

In 1839 Mr Henry Burden, the great iron man of Troy, N. Y., invented a "Hook headed Spike Machine," for the purpose of fastening rails to the ties on railroads. In 1840 he took out a patent, and he claims that in the same year the firm of Corning, Winslow & Horne infringed it. In 1841 he commenced suit in the United States circuit court. It was tried the next year and Mr. Burden gained it. Defendants applied for a new trial on exceptions; it was granted, and defendants were again beaten. So the case passed through various phases, until Chancellor Walworth was appointed as Master to take evidence and assess the damages. From 1853 to 1865, a period of twelve years, the Chancellor labored at his work. The Court granted him, during this time, $14,000 for his services. He also charged $5 a day for office rent, and received an additional $12,000. His son acted as his clerk, and being of a romantic tendency, amused himself writing novels, in which he introduced Mr. Burden and family as characters. His services were rewarded by the sum $19,427.25. It also appears by Mr. Burden's affidavit that the defendants had secretly paid the Chancellor $30,000. The leading lawyers are—for plaintiff, Mr. Beach, of Troy; for defendants, the Hon. David L. Seymour, of the same city. To sum the matter up, the case has been in court twenty-six years, and the expenses have been about $600,000.

THE LAWS OF HEALTH.—It is useless for State Legislatures to pass laws for the preservation of the public health, if the great law of self-preservation, which depends for its enforcement upon the will of the individual, is suffered to remain a dead letter.

"There is scarcely an adult member of the community, of either sex, in this country, who has not seen the testimony in favor of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, furnished over their own signatures by persons of acknowledged eminence in science, literature, art, commerce, and every department of business and professional life. These witnesses have declared in the most explicit terms that the preparation is a safeguard against epidemics, a sovereign remedy for dyspepsia, a valuable anti-bilious medicine, a promoter of appetite, a genial and harmless stimulant, a good sedimenting medicine, a strengthener of the nerves, a general invigorant, a protection against the deleterious effects of malaria and impure water, and that it imparts a degree of vigor and activity to the vital forces which is not communicated by any other of the tonics and stomachics in use. Under these circumstances the self-preservative law of nature should teach every rational person who, either by reason of inherent debility or in consequence of exposure to unwholesome influences, is in peril of the greatest of all temporal blessings HEALTH, the importance of using the BITTERS as a defensive medicine. Dyspeptics who neglect to give it a trial are simply their own enemies. It is guaranteed to cure indigestion in all its forms, and the bilious and nervous will find nothing in the whole range of official and proprietary medicines which will afford them the same relief.

NOTICE TO CONSUMERS OF WATER.—The repairs now in progress at the Water Works render it imperative that great economy should be observed in the use of water, the one engine now running being taxed to its utmost capacity. All unnecessary waste of water should be avoided, such as sprinkling streets, washing pavements, drenching clothes in tubs to an inordinate extent, &c. Unless there is proper attention paid to these requirements the city will not have sufficient water for fire, culinary and other necessary purposes. A non-observance of this caution may deprive the offender of a supply of water, as well as entail a heavy fine.

It is hoped that in the course of three weeks or a month, at furthest, the Superintendent will be enabled to remove these restrictions.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE.)

Fatal Accident—One Man Killed and two Injured.

An accident fatal in its results, occurred yesterday forenoon at the glass house of Messrs. King & Company, on Breed street, near Bausman's coal works, in Birmingham. Some weeks since the main portion of the glass house was torn down, preparatory to being re-built. The work of rebuilding was commenced under the supervision of Mr. John McKain, architect, Messrs. Smith & Corbett, carpenters, sending their foreman and workmen to the job. A scaffold some twenty feet in height, was erected for the adjustment of the upper timbers of the new building. According to the facts testified to yesterday, there was considerable discussion as to the security of this scaffolding at the time of its erection. The foreman, Mr. Isaac McGumphry, remonstrated against it being used by the workmen until some of its timbers both in the upright, and transverse portions should be replaced by more solid ones. The architect, Mr. McKain, decided that the scaffold was safe enough and it was permitted to stand, and the workmen proceeded with their work. Yesterday morning, at a little before eleven, the foreman Mr. McGumphy, with two workmen named Geo. Kew and D. Evans, went upon the scaffold to work. They were busy framing together the "plates" of the building when, in turning one of the timbers, the supports under one end of the scaffold gave way and that portion fell with a crash. Its fall shattered the trestle work, and the other end of the scaffold also fell the instant after. McGumphy and Evans were at work on the end that gave way first, and were precipitated to the ground among the timbers and debris. McGumphy had one of the ribs on his left side broken and sustained several severe and painful bruises and sprains. His injuries however, are not considered dangerous. Evans sustained a painful sprain of the left knee which partially disables him.

At the other end of the scaffold, Kent was at work, standing astride of the timber with which he was engaged. At the time the scaffold first gave way, he had in one hand the end of a rope attached to the frame work of the building, but the shock of the fall broke his hold on the rope and he fell headlong to the ground. As he fell he struck his forehead on the chime of a barrel standing beneath, and laid his skull completely open, killing him almost instantly.

He was taken up and carried at once into the tavern of Chris. Strange, on the corner of Breed and Denmar streets, where he remained until Coroner Clawson, who was immediately summoned, arrived and held the inquest on the remains.

From the testimony it was impossible to decide whether it was a cross piece or an upright that first gave way. It was probably the principal cross piece at the end. This was a scantling eight inches by two. It might not have broken, had it not been for a knot which extended through its entire breadth, and which materially weakened it. The foreman is disposed to exonerate Mr. McKain from blame in the matter, as he did not see this defective timber before it was put in the scaffold. The jury returned a verdict to the following effect: "That the deceased came to his death in the borough of Birmingham, on the 12th of November, 1866, by the fall of a scaffold at King & Co.'s glass house, and the jury are of opinion that the said scaffold was insecurely built, and that the responsibility for the same is in doubt."

The deceased was a single man of about twenty-three years of age, and came to this vicinity recently from Lawrence county. He resided with relatives on Gist street, Birmingham, and has a brother in this city who is a plasterer. He is said to have been a man of irreproachable character.

A Lover Brought to Judgment.

Mary Rogers came to the office of Alderman Lynch yesterday and made oath against Samuel Burger for surety of the peace. The deponent alleges that the offending Samuel is almost perpetually in a state of semi intoxication, and that while in this condition he often visits her domicil and importunes her to make him happy by linking her fate to his in the holy bands of matrimony. Having no inclination to enter the conjugal state these importunities are a source of great annoyance to the lady, who, on the occasion of a recent visit, or we might more properly say, a visitation, from her admirer, told him frankly she did not want to have anything to do with him whatever, and if he continued to tease her she would be forced to apply to his aching heart a little scalding water by an exterior application. This incensed the affectionate Samuel and turned his passion to bitter hate, making him, in the torture incident to such an event, so far forget his gallantry as to threaten to murder, not only Mary, but her paternal parent. Fearing he would put his threat into execution, the lady appeared before the magistrate named, and made oath as stated. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Samuel.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 12, 1866.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Noticing in to-day's GAZETTE an article entitled "Falling Stars," I would beg to advise your readers of the fact that the anticipated meteoric shower may disappoint them for the present. According to Humboldt's Cosmos, (volume 1, page 127,) the prediction of Olbers is recorded, that the next display may be looked for on November 12-14, 1867—a year hence. This is based on the former most brilliant recorded showers of 1799 and 1833, the interval being thirty-four years. There seems to be a pretty general belief that its recurrence may be looked for, but that it will occur this year, is not so certain. The former meteoric storms seemed to proceed from the celestial region of Leo. The time when and the spot whence will be more correctly determined when the event occurs.
Yours truly, JOHN.

Deafness Cured.

I certify that some three weeks since, Dr. Aborn, at the Merchants Hotel, had restored my hearing and removed a disagreeable noise from my ears. I am happy to announce that the cure is permanent. I cheerfully state that the Doctor, apart from his extraordinary skill, is a gentleman in every respect. Not like many whom I had consulted previously, he makes no extravagant promises for the purpose of inducing the patients to place themselves under his treatment, but lets the results of his operations speak instead. When in the city I stop at the St. Clair Hotel. My residence is in Jefferson county, Pa.
H. BROWN.

Common Pleas.

The Court assembled at the usual hour yesterday morning. Judge Stowe occupied the bench.

The first case taken up was that of James Ingram and R. H. Lindsay, executors of James Lindsay, deceased, vs. Thomas Sinclair. This was an action to recover the amount of rent alleged to be due the estate by defendant. The jury found for the plaintiffs in the sum of $139.37.

The next case taken up was that of Messrs. Weakley & Brown vs. A. D. Miller. Non-suit entered.

Court adjourned to meet at nine o'clock Tuesday morning.

A Cross Suit.—Some days since two charges of surety of the peace, were preferred before Alderman Lynch, by Ann Hartigan against Sarah Owens, of the Eighth ward. The case was held for a hearing on Friday of this week. Yesterday Sarah Owens appeared before the same magistrate, and preferred a charge of assault and battery against the prosecutrix, alleging that Mrs. Hartigan spat in deponent's face. Ann was arrested and was also held for a hearing on Friday next.

Boy Injured.—A boy named James Donohue, while engaged in a mimic battle on Boyd's Hill, yesterday, with some companions, was struck in the face a little below the left eye with a piece of brick and knocked down. When taken up it was ascertained that his eye was so much injured as to create doubts as to whether the sight would not be impaired forever in consequence. Dr. Herron was the attending physician.

Information Wanted of Leopold Bernheim, who left Pittsburgh for the country about one month ago. He is twenty-two years old; German; ear-rings in ear. Should this meet his eye, or any one familiar with his whereabouts, they will confer a favor on anxious relatives. Address, J. COHEN, Attorney-at-Law, Pittsburgh.
[Country exchanges please copy.]

M. P. General Conference.—This body will convene in Allegheny City, to-morrow. The delegates from the Pittsburgh Conference are the following: Ministers—George Brown, D. D., John Scott, D. D., William Reeves, D. D., John Cowl, V. Lucas. Laymen—John Redmen, R. H. Marshall, William Rinehart, Dr. John Sargent, William Miller.

Accidental Shooting.—On Sunday afternoon a young man named Thomas Houston, a resident of Allegheny, was severely wounded in the left arm by the accidental discharge of a pistol. The accident occurred at the corner of Penn and Irwin streets, in the Fourth ward, this city.

Entered Bail.—Wilhelm Burgher, charged with selling liquor without license, was brought before Alderman Donaldson yesterday for a hearing, which he waived and entered bail for his appearance at the next session of the Criminal Court to answer the charge.

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM NEW YORK.

Our Relations with Prussia—Proposed Alliance between Mexico and Chili—Commissioner of Internal Revenue—Important Decision by Fourth Auditor—Sherman's Mexican Mission, &c.

NEW YORK, November 12.—A subscription for the relief of the sufferers by the recent inundations in France, has been opened by Baron Balleau, the French Consul General, at his office in this city.

Emily Campbell, an English woman, recently arrived from the old country in an emigrant ship, threw herself into the North river, on Saturday, with her newly born baby in her arms, in the hope of committing suicide. She was arrested. Poverty was the cause.

William Simpson, a druggist, doing business at 272 Eighth avenue, committed suicide yesterday, by taking laudanum. Intemperance was the cause.

The body of Francis M'Abe was found in the North river yesterday. It is thought he was murdered.

The Herald's Washington special says: Our relations with Prussia are being seriously considered in Cabinet Council.

There are indications that Chili and the Liberal government of Mexico will immediatel form a close alliance, and possibly the treaty will be a secret one.

Mr. Spooner has a clear field for the position of Commissioner of Internal Revenue, when a vacancy occurs; all other applicants having withdrawn.

The World's Washington special says: R. M. T. Hunter, of Virginia, arrived here to-day. It is understood that he is after his pardon. His, with some hundred and fifty other applications of prominent men who figured in the rebellion, are hung up, and are likely to be for some time.

Certain parties here claim to have Executive assurances that Commissioner Barrett, of the Pension Bureau, is about to be removed.

About five thousand freedmen have been provided for during the past year, having been furnished transportation from this city to the place in which employment had been secured for them. It is stated in the Freedmen's Bureau circular that amongst a population of twenty-two thousand freed people in the District, probably not more than fifteen thousand can obtain work at fair wages, and the colored people are invited to avail themselves of the agency of the Bureau in giving them transportation to points where they can be furnished with employment.

The Times' Washington special says: Mr. Sloanaker, Collector of the First District of Pennsylvania, about whose appointment so much strife took place last Spring, has come to grief. He has quarrelled with those who were instrumental in obtaining his appointment, and will probably be succeded by an acceptable man.

A Tribune's special says: The Fourth Auditor has decided that after fifteen days from November 10th, all claims filed by the same claimant through different claim agents, shall be settled according to priority of filing, and not according to priority of date as heretofore. This is of special importance in claims for prize money.

The Times intimates that the sole object of General Sherman's mission to Mexico is to aid General Castelnau, sent by the Emperor of France, to superintend the evacuation, by acting as the representative of this Government possessed of authority to discuss questions at issue and to speak for American interests.

The Fenians—Circular from S. R. Spear—The Excise Law for Albany.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—S. R. Spear, Acting Secretary of War for the Fenians, has issued a circular urging the necessity of having a thorough military organization throughout the United States and Territories, and containing instructions for the formation of infantry, cavalry and artillery corps. Stephens is still in this city.

The World's Toronto special says: The Vice Consul General for the United States at Montreal, Mr. Drummond, has made an application to the United States Government for the necessary means of defense of such citizens as will be tried there and are without means of their own. A very large proportion of them are mere boys.

The World's Albany correspondent says: The Legislature will be called upon to make the excise law for this city still more stringent than it is.

Arrival From Europe.

NEW YORK, November 12.—The steamer Saxonia brings Southampton dates to October 31st.

Mrs. Lincoln and her daughter were in Bath, and are well.

SCOTLAND.—Cholera had broken out afresh at Woolwich and Cherlton. It prevails lightly at Edinburgh, and had also appeared in several places in Yorkshire.

In Candia the Turco-Egyptian army had gained a decisive victory over the insurgents. Mustapha Pasha, with 18,000 troops captured Karancis, and consequently pushed forward to the mountains, where he was defeated after four days fighting.

Schooner Ashore.

CLEVELAND, November 12.—The schooner Washington, with ore for Cleveland, went ashore here on Sunday night. In rescuing her crew, three men fell from the life boat, and were drowned. The vessel was not badly damaged.

Death of Hon. H. V. Wilson.

CLEVELAND, November 12.—Hon Hiram V. Wilson, United States District Judge of the Northern District of Ohio, died on Sunday evening, 11th instant, at midnight, of consumption.

The Iowa Election.

NEW YORK, November 12.—The Tribune says the official returns of the vote in Iowa will show the Republican majority in that State to be nearly 40,000.

FOR SALE—400 Acres of Coal Land, lying immediately upon the Ohio River, 20 miles below Gallapolis, and 185 miles above Cincinnati. On the above tract is a four foot vein of Coal, which, for general purposes, is not surpassed. It is entirely different from the Southern Ohio Coal; contains but little sulphur, forges and cokes well, and for making steam cannot be excelled. The location being about midway from Pomeroy and Hanging Rock, must make it valuable for coaling boats. There is a water front of ¾ of a mile, with a good landing at all stages of the river. An entrance has been run in the hill about 300 feet, track finished to river, together with the necessary fixtures for mining and delivering coal afloat. On said tract is first-class double Portable Circular Saw Mill together with a Portable Grist Mill, all in good running order, and plenty of the very best oak, ash and poplar timber. Would sell one-half interest if desired, to a party with experience and capital for working same. JOHN D. BAILEY,

FOR SALE—231 acres Coal, including 51 acres Surface, on the East side of the Ohio River, three miles above Wheeling, with right of way to river. The close proximity to a good market at Wheeling, together with the fact that the coal crops out high enough in the hill to be used profitably for rolling mill purposes, makes this a good investment. PURE CALIFORNIA WINES.
GURNER & CO.,
No. 80 Cedar St., New York,

Offer for sale these valuable Wines, which are gaining public favor with astonishing rapidity, and whose unprecedented and unrivalled popularity is not without merit. They have only to be fairly tested to give them the preference over all others. As a purifier of blood they excel all other Wines, and the numerous certificates which have voluntarily been tendered from the most eminent physicians, as well as gentlemen in every position in life, are proof conclusive that these Wines are useful in all cases for which they are recommended.

The following brands are now offered by us. They comprise all the varieties now grown in the State suitable for sale:

WHITE, or HOCK WINE—Of a light straw color, very delicate and fine flavored.

CLARET—A superior wine for table use.

ANGELICA—A rich and naturally sweet wine, much admired by ladies, and valuable in the sick chamber, as it makes fine wheys and jellies. It is a fine dessert wine, and well adapted for Communion purposes.

MUSCATEL—A light colored, highly aromatic wine. Very similar to the celebrated Tokay.

PORT—Deep red color, fine flavor, and in many respects similar to the old wines of Lisbon.

GRAPE BRANDY—The pure distillation of our wines.

WINE BITTERS—A very agreeable tonic and a sure remedy for the diarrhea.

This is one of the most valuable combinations of a useful and an agreeable beverage that has ever been offered to the public. Millions of bottles were sold throughout the North during the last four years, and wherever introduced it has proved a welcome addition to the invalid table, the family circle, and the bachelor's sideboard.

Ladies who have lost strength and appetite, and suffer from nausea, vomiting and vertigo; gentlemen who "don't feel very well" just before breakfast or dinner whose stomachs are out of order and whose systems are generally deranged; mothers weaning children and suffering from general debility; children of sickly nature and sour, dyspeptic constitutions; travelers who have occasion to change their water; and all who live in malarious districts and are subject to miasmatic influences, will find it one of the most valuable invigorators that can be taken.

It was used very extensively in 1861, with such general satisfaction that in offering it to the public now we deem it unnecessary to publish any of the many certificates that we have received, testifying in the very strongest terms in its favor. All that we can say is to guarantee that we will pledge ourselves to furnish an article PURE AND UNADULTERATED.

It has been given to little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill has been exhausted, has been entirely restored. She began with but a teaspoonful a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased and she is now well.

MONDAY, November 12, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as reported by Robinson, McClean & Co., were as follows: Gold, 144¼; 1881's, 114; 5-20's, old, 110; 5-20s '65, 107¾; 5-20s, new issue, 109¾; 7-30s, 1st series, 107¼; second and third, 105¾. R., 82¾; Union Telegraph Company, 51½; Chicago & North Western, 54; Chicago & Rock Island, 109¾; Alton & Terre Haute, 48½.

—The following statement exhibits the business of the Pittsburgh Clearing House for the week closing on Saturday, November 10th:

| | Exchanges. | Balances. |
|---|---|---|
| November 5 | $500,031 49 | $86,797 17 |
| November 6 | 392,516 04 | 84,923 64 |
| November 7 | 352,977 98 | 88,274 23 |
| November 8 | 301,928 92 | 64,750 18 |
| November 9 | 344,292 17 | 69,955 76 |
| November 10 | 342,483 04 | 74,581 77 |
| Total | $2,234,229 62 | $440,161 75 |

There was but comparatively little done in local stocks to-day. We can report a small sale of Triumph (oil) at 110—an advance. Columbia is dull and neglected, and the same remarks will apply to Marine. Bank shares in demand, but the extreme views of holders has a tendency to retard operations. No movement in Insurance or Gas stocks. Government bonds firm and moderately active, but without decided change.

—According to the last monthly statment of the public debt, the United States Treasury has now on hand a full year's interest on over $1,000,000,000 of debt. Mr. McCulloch can, from his gold reserve, get all he needs to pay his currency debt, without resorting to the reserve of $50,000,000 of legal-tenders. Of the loan of 1867 and 1868, the Secretary has within the month paid off $2,289,850. There is manifestly a disposition on the part of the Secretary to lessen the volume of paper currency. All the changes in the debt are in the right direction. The reduction of legal-tenders and of compound notes, used by the National Banks as a reserve, should teach banks and borrowers caution. The basis of banking credits is disappearing, and there will follow in good time a contraction of the loan. As the Seven Thirty Treasury notes are convertible at maturity into Five Twenty coin interest bonds, at the option of the holder, the Treasury Department keeps its attention constantly directed to the conversion of all these notes that can be reached. Fortunately they do not all mature at the same time, and the Department is engaged in endeavoring to secure the conversion of those first becoming due. These notes had three years to run, like the compound interest notes, and both must be provided against. The compounds should be first redeemed, because of the higher interest they bear. But the difficulty of reaching them has thus far retarded the process, and the Secretary does not seem to be able to do anything to bring them out of the bank vaults. The decrease of the compound interest notes during the month, to the amount of seven millions, may have been converted into Five Twenties, or they may have been directly purchased. The Five Twenties increased in October $25,781,750, chiefly from the funding into them of Seven Thirty notes. Next to the general reduction of the debt, the increase of coin in the Treasury is the most satisfactory feature of the report. This increase amounts to thirteen millions, notwithstanding the disbursement of about two millions in the purchase of bonds, the total amount in the Treasury at the close of October being, in round numbers, one hundred millions. The currency in the Treasury, however, has been diminished eleven millions, nine millions of the decrease being due to the permanent retiring of greenbacks. With this steady improvement of the Government credit, and the reduction of the public debt, the public loans can scarcely fail to increase in favor both at home and abroad.—Phila. Ledger.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
MONDAY, November 12, 1866. }

There is but little that is new to say about the produce markets. The "little" panic in Chicago during the latter part of last week has completely unsettled and restricted operations here, and dealers in Flour and Grain are in a dilemma, and, as yet, they are greatly puzzled to know what course is best for them to pursue. Some are of the opinion that now is the time to replenish, while others, whose judgment is equally as good, seem disposed to unload first, and then, if it is possible, replace at a much lower scale of prices. Be this as it may, there is no disguising the fact that trade is dull, and no improvement can reasonably be expected until matters become more settled.

GRAIN—There is no demand for Wheat, and concessions would have to be made in order to effect sales. Oats quiet and unchanged—small sales at 56 to 58. Corn is dull, with a drooping tendency; sale of 1 car new, in ears, at 75. Barley is in fair demand, but brewers are asking for concessions—sale of 1 car good Spring at $1,10. Nothing doing in Rye.

FLOUR—Is coming in pretty freely, and with unfavorable reports from the west, the market is a little dull, and prices a shade lower—say 25 cents per bbl. We now quote at $12 to $12½ for Spring wheat, and $13 to 13½ for Winter. Sales of Rye Flour at $8@8¼, and Buckwheat at $4 to $4½ per cwt.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in good demand, and we can report sales at $3 to $3,10. Timothy Seed is dull; small sales at $3—cannot be quoted above $3½ to $3¾, in first hands. We had a small sale of Clover reported to-day at $9.

PROVISIONS—There is no improvement to note in the demand for Bacon, and prices are nominally unchanged. Lard is quoted at 15 to 15¼, for prime kettle rendered. Very little demand for Mess Pork, and but little in market.

APPLES—Continue dull, with a supply considerably in excess of the demand, and there is little or no inquiry from the east. We continue to quote at $2½ to $3 per bbl.

POTATOES—Prime Jersey Sweets are reported steady at $5 per bbl. Prime Peach Blows at $2,50 per bbl.

CRANBERRIES—Steady with regular sales at $15 per bbl for common, and $20 for cultivated.

CHEESE—Continues dull but nominally unchanged; we continue to quote at 16 for Western Reserve; 17 to 18 for Hamburg; 19 for Factory, and 20 for Goshen.

EGGS—Scarce and in demand, and fresh packed would doubtless command 31 to 32, an advance.

BUTTER—Is in good supply, but prime Roll still sells without much difficulty at 30 to 33—mostly at 30 to 32.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches are selling in a regular way at 18 to 20 for quarters, and quarters and halves "mixed," and 22 to 23 for halves. No inquiry for Apples.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
MONDAY, November 12, 1866. }

CRUDE—There was a apparently a little firmer feeling in the Crude market to-day, owing partially to a slight improvement in the demand for Refined, but mainly to the fact that there is less offering, and the prospects for a speedy resumption of navigation are not as bright as they were on Friday and Saturday last. So far, however, as prices are concerned, there has been no perceptible change one way or the other, and we continue to quote at 10½ to 11c, bbls returned, and in bulk, and 15¼ to 16, bbls included—sale of 1000 bbls, in bulk (40 to 44 gravity) at 10¾. Light gravities, ranging from 45 to 47, cannot be quoted above 10c—we are cognizant of 40 to 46 having been offered at 10½, without finding buyers.

REFINED—There was unexpectedly a very brisk demand for bonded oil to-day, and while there was a better feeling, and the transactions in the aggregate, were unusually large, prices are not quotably higher. We quote at 29 to 30, free on board cars here, and 35 to 36, delivered in Philadelphia, and these may be regarded as the extremes of the market. The reported sales in the aggregate, reached seven thousand barrels as follows: 500 to be delivered between the 15th and 30th of December, at 29, free on board cars here; 500, 15 to 30th of January, at 29; 500 for December delivery in Philadelphia, at 35½; 1000 do at 36; 500 do at 36; 500 do at 36; 500 for November, at 36; 500 for immediate delivery, at 35¼; 1000 for February, at 36; 500 do, at 36; 500 for January, at 36, and 500 standard white, immediate, at 36. No movement in free oil, and prices are nominally unchanged.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day: Fisher & Bro., 917; Little & William 500—total, 1417 barrels.

New York Flour Market.

NEW YORK, November 10.—The decline in prices of State and Western Flour noted at the date of our last, has been followed by a further fall of 50@100 cents per bbl, with an unusually light business, principally confined to the local jobbing trade and small lots for coastwise shipment. The receipts continue rather moderate for the season, and consist largely of inferior kinds, which causes sound brands to be held with more firmness, relatively, than unsound. Stocks are accumulating in the leading markets of the West, for which the present transportation facilities afford no outlet, this has a tendency to depress prices and the depression is reflected in our own market. There are so many depending contingencies, that it is impossible to forecast the future of the market; but it is quite certain that Flour must continue to retain its relative value, as compared with other staples, at least until it shall be satisfactorily demonstrated that the production is in excess of the demands for home consumption and of commerce. The export trade remains in abeyance.—Com. List.

Boston Iron Market.

BOSTON, November 10.—There is no change to note in this market for pig iron, which rules firm at previous rates. The demand continues ahead of the supply, especially of Scotch pig, which is selling in considerable lots to arrive. The domestic article is also sold ahead of production, with large consumers operating for seasonable supplies, and lots for immediate use command very full prices. Manufactured iron is quiet and unchanged. Scotch pig is scarce and firm, with sales of No. 1 Eglinton, in small lots from store, at $55, and Coltness at $57 per ton. American is in good demand, with sales in lots as wanted for use at $49@55 per ton for the different numbers. Charcoal pig is selling at $50@75 per ton as to brand. Bar iron is quiet, with sales English and American from store at $105@110 per ton for common, and $115 to $120 for refined.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Financial Matters.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Money steady, at 5@6 per cent, for call loans. Sterling exchange is dull, at 109@109¼ gold, for first class bills American. Gold lower, opening at 144, declining to 143¾, advancing to 144¼, and closing at 144½. Government stocks are rather more steady. Freights to Liverpool are quiet.

Weekly Bank Statement—Loans, $273,698,280; increase, $3,907,853; specie, $13,145,331; increase, $3,958,768; circulation, $30,968,940; increase, $502,733; legal tenders, $71,512,403; decrease, $3,478,347; deposits, $220,325,317; increase, $1,483,022.

Stocks lower; gold 144½; Fort Wayne, 109½; Alton and T. H., 45½; Rock Island, 105½; Northwestern, 50; do. preferred, 77¾; Illinois Central, 124; Reading, 116; Erie, 81¾; New York Central, 116¾; Pacific Mail, 201½; Atlantic, 111¼; Western Union Telegraph, 51½; Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 31¾; 5-20 coupons '65, new 109¾; 10-40 Coupons, 100¼; 7-30s second series, 105½.

The Commercial's money article says: The morning market shows a continuance of extreme ease noted on Saturday. Some of the banks still ask six per cent., but the general rate on call loans is five per cent., with an abundance offering at that rate, and at 4 per cent. on Government collaterals. There is a somewhat liberal supply of paper on the market, and the competition for discounts tends to keep up the rates, 6@7 per cent. being the current quotations for prime names. Foreign exchange opens dull at a shade lower quotations than on Friday. Prime bankers' 60 days sterling is offered from second hands at 109@109¼. The stock market is unsettled and weak. The desire to sell predominates, and this disposition is fostered by the bears who, at the board, hammered certain stocks quite freely. The changes in the bank statement, and the anticipation of a diversion of speculation to the gold room appear to be the chief cause of the downward movement of prices.

LATEST.

The money market closed up quietly and borrowers were readily supplied at 4@5 per cent for call loans on Government and Stock collaterals. There was some shifting of loans early in the day, and 6 per cent. was paid in some cases. Prime discounts are dull at 6@7 per cent. The Gold market was stronger towards the close, and rose to 144⅝@144¾—cash. Gold is scarce and has been loaned from flat to 1-16 per cent. Foreign Exchange is very dull and the market is weak at 109@109¼. Government securities dull: Registered '81, 113¾@114; coupon '81, 114@114¼; 5-20s registered, '62, 109¼@109½; do. coupons, '65, 107¼@107¾; 10-40's registered, 100¼@100¾; do coupons 100¼@100¾; August 7-30's, 107¼@107¾; June 7-30's, 105¾@106; July, 105½@105¾.

The Stock Market was heavy and lower at the last open Board. After call there was a better feeling, and Erie raised from 80⅞ to 81¼. The following were closing prices: Ohio & Mississippi certificates, 31@31¼; Western Union, 51⅝@51¾; New York Central, 116⅛@116¼; Erie 81¾@81⅞; Hudson, 124@125; Reading, 115¾@115⅞; Michigan Southern, 88⅝@89; Illinois Central, 125¼@126; Cleveland & Pittsburg, 90@90¼; Cleveland & Toledo, 117¼@117¾; Rock Island, 108¼@108⅜; North Western, 51¼@51⅜.

SWINE.—Heavy corn fed, per pound, 7¾@7½c; light and medium, 7@7¼c.

The market for beef cattle has experienced a heavy decline since the last report. Sales to-day of very best cattle at 16c, while good sold as low as 14½@15c, a decline of ½@1c per pound, the depression being caused by the continued heavy receipts and the overstocked meat markets. Milch cows sold less freely, and in some cases a slight decline has been submitted to. Veal calves are unchanged, the demand being moderately active and the market steady, at 13½c for choice, though an occasional sale was made at 14c. The market for sheep and lambs, although active and firm during the latter part of the week, opened with less activity, and previous prices were barely sustained, though not quotably lower, sheep selling at from 5 to 7c, and lambs from 7 to 8½c. The receipts are large. The hog market, under the continued heavy receipts and the continued depression in the pork market, has ruled decidedly lower, prices having fallen off fully 2¼@2½c per pound, with sales of western corn fed at 7¼c per pound. The total receipts of all stocks, at all the yards, for this week, were as follows: Beeves, 7,117; cows, 76; veal calves, 1,026; sheep and lambs, 27,420; swine, 17,771.

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, November 12.—The Dry Goods trade opened with but little improvement this morning, and the prices of goods are not particularly changed, as there is an absence of demand to cause holders to reduce their rates. Offers for goods would be considered at a material reduction from the present quotations. There is considerable complaint that accounts are not easily collected, and that extensions are asked for. In cotton domestics there is little to report by way of particulars. In woolen goods, there is some demand for Linsey, Flannels and Beaver cloths and a few other specialties for immediate wants; otherwise the market is at a stand still.

St. Louis Market.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly at this point, with three feet four inches in the channel by the marks last evening. The weather yesterday was cloudy and raw, with indications about equally favorable for rain or snow. The hopes entertained that the recent rains would cause a slight swell do not seem likely to be realized.

The arrivals since our last report include the Importer and Petrolia, from Memphis, and the Keaton, from St. Louis. The Importer had all the freight she could carry on the water, including four hunered bales of cotton for the mills in Allegheny. The Petrolia has been absent for some time, during which she has been plying on the smaller streams in the South. This boat, it will be remembered, was built for, and was engaged several seasons in the Allegheny river trade.

The Parkersburg packet Grey Eagle, having been thrown out of time, owing to unavoidable circumstances, will lie over until Wednesday, when if there is water enough, she will go out as usual. The Bayard left on time to-day, with a moderate trip.

The Delaware is on the dock, having some necessary repairs made.

The Importer, while at Memphis, on her last trip, had a couple of chests of tea stolen, costing the boat about $175, and she lost a valuable horse overboard, the value of which the owner will endeavor to recover from the boat.

Capt. Hare's new boat is rapidly approaching completion, and without speaking disparagingly of others, she will be one of the best stern wheel boats on the Western waters.

The Argosy had not arrived when we left the wharf, but she was momentarily expected and will doubtless be found in port this morning. This fine steamer will return to Cincinnati again to-day, and it is to be hoped she will receive, as she deserves, a good trip. As we have repeatedly stated, the Argosy will ply as a regular packet between here and Cincinnati, leaving every Tuesday.

The Sherman, Capt. Crane, is filling up steadily for St. Louis, and will soon be ready to take her departure.

The Armenia, Capt. McCallum, is filling up slowly for New Orleans, as is also the Camelia, Capt. Lytle, for Nashville.

The Nora, Capt. H. H Devinney, is filling up steadily for Cincinnati and Louisville, and will soon be ready to take her departure.

The Louisville Courier, of Saturday, says:

About twelve o'clock the Wild Wagoner, as she now lies at Jeffersonville, was disposed of to the highest bidder, and, after some spirited bidding, was knocked down to Capt. J. B. Ford, for $45,000. Just as the sale was closing a dispatch was received from Cincinnati, from Gaylord & Co., offering $50,000 for the boat. Capt. Ford is in luck.

The Ezra Porter and Pine Grove left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Saturday, and the Quickstep was advertised to follow on Tuesday. We clip the following from the Cincinnati Commercial of Sunday:

The St. Charles was sold at public auction yesterday noon, to Thos. G. Gaylord, Esq., for $50,000. This was the only bid, although there was a good representation of steamboat owners present. The St. Charles will remain in the Portsmouth trade until Capt. Pres. Lodwick's new packet is completed. The People's Line wharfboat was also sold for $900 to Capt. Frank S. Robinson, of Warsaw, Kentucky......Capt. Jas. S. Wise received dispatches yesterday announcing fifteen inches in the Cumberland, and no prospects of a rise at present......Mr. Frank R. Shunk returned from his matrimonial tour Eastward. He was on the train on the Little Miami Railroad when it ran off the track, but fortunately escaped injury......Capt. J. B. Ford, of New Albany, was in attendance at the sale of the St. Charles yesterday.

CONSUMPTION.

Our son JAMES PAINTER, some three years ago was afflicted with consumption of the lungs, for which he was discharged from the army. He was examined by four army physicians who all agreed that he must die with the disease. I brought him to Dr. KEYSER, 140 Wood street, (now 120 Penn street,) who, after sounding his lungs, commenced to treat him, and cured him sound and well. He is now well and has been so for the past three years. Others afflicted in like manner can likewise be cured.
JAMES PAINTER,
SARAH ANN PAINTER.
Temperanceville, Sept. 5th, 1866.

PITTSBURGH, December 31.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP. I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October, at that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.
JOHN C. LITTLE.
Witness R. F. KERR. Peebles township.

A case of five years' standing cured by DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.

PITTSBURGH, January 11, 1860.

DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with a dry caugh and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP. I bought, the first time, a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this you desire to do so.
WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward

WHOOPING COUGH.

Below will be found a certificate from Doctor M. Dupuy, one of our most respectable dentists, in regard to Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup. The Pectoral Syrup is also an infallible cure for every form of cough and cold to which we are liable.

PITTSBURGH, June 23, 1863.

DR. KEYSER:—Dear Sir: I have for a long time been opposed to advertised or patent medicines, and it is with reluctance that I recommend any of them. The consideration, however, that I am doing the community a service, induces me to overcome my objections, and to publicly recommend your Pectoral Syrup. We have kept it in our family for the last five or six years, and have given it for coughs, such as are produced by colds, &c., with the effect of alleviating or entirely arresting them. During last winter our children were exposed to the infection of whooping cough, and each one of our three boys was attacked with what we believe to be that malady. We administered your Syrup liberally, and the result was, that the whooping cough lasted with neither of them more than ten or twelve days. I hope others will at least make a trial of your medicines in such cases, as we have found it beneficial. Yours,
M. DUPUY, No. 21 Wylie street.

HERNIA OR RUPTURE.

It will be observed that we have published for some time past an advertisement of Dr. George H. Keyser, of 140 Wood street, Pittsburgh, Pa., in reference to Trusses and other mechanical appliances for the cure and relief of hernia, or rupture, besides various broken down conditions of the human body which are usually beyond the reach of medication. Dr. Keyser has given this branch of the business great attention for several years past, and we think we are justified in saying that he comprehends it thoroughly. You can get at his store Shoulder Braces for weak breasts, Elastic Stockings for varicose veins, Pile Props for the cure of Piles, and, in fact, every variety of mechanical appliance. Dr. Keyser is the inventor of a Truss for the radical cure of hernia or rupture, so perfect in its parts, and so comfortable to the wearer, as to elicit the admiration of all who may need such an appliance.

He has recently been in communication with some of the ablest and most experienced truss surgeons in the United States, and feels satisfied that all those who have been plagued or annoyed with ill-fitting and uncomfortable trusses, can be accommodated by calling at his consulting rooms, No. 120 Penn street, or at his Medicine and Truss Depot, 140 Wood street. Office hours from eight to eleven A. M. and one to four P. M.

DEAFNESS AND THE EAR.

Many persons have rested content in the belief that skin and ear diseases, however troublesome will wear out of themselves, or that no remedy will avail in effecting a cure; in this way many persons have suffered through some half dozen years, who might easily have been relieved at the onset in as many weeks. So also with regard to the ear, a prejudice has obtained that the ear is too delicate an organ to be treated, or as is often expressed, tampered with; hence hundreds have thus remained deaf for the greater part of a lifetime, who might have been greatly relieved, and in many instances, completely restored to their hearing, had proper assistance been timely applied for, as may readily be seen by a perusal of the following certificate. We also take occasion to remark that the testimonial comes from a source close at hand, in Allegheny City, where, upon inquiry, any one interested can satisfy themselves of its truth:

PITTSBURGH, July 28, 1864.

DEAR SIR:—I take pleasure in adding my testimony to that of others in favor of Dr. Keyser's treatment of deafness. My son had been afflicted for five years with deafness produced from scarlet fever. At times he could not hear at all; and could only understand as we would motion to him. His speech had also become affected. Having tried other remedies without receiving any benefit, I applied to Dr. Keyser, and under his treatment he has entirely recovered, and can now hear as well as ever he did.
JOHN B. GARRETT,
No. 177 Beaver street, Allegheny.
To Keyser, No 120 Penn street.
